[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO APRIL 8.

EUROPE.

More Fighting in Paris.

LONDON, April 7.—A dispatch from Versailles dated on the night of the 6th, says there was cannonade and musketry firing continually all the afternoon to the south of Paris, between the insurgents' position and Montrouge and the Government position at Chatillon. Similar firing was heard to the Northeast of Paris, evidently between Ansiers and Nanterre, and toward Colombes.

Forts Ivry, Bicetre and Valerien are engaged in a contest with a portion of the artillery of the Versailles army.

The Government troops made a vigorous attack upon the insurgent Nationals at Neuilly, aided by the fire of Fort Valerien and batteries at Coarbevie. The combat still continues. The Nationals everywhere have abandoned the offensive for the defensive.

A large force of insurgents at Geuvilliers is surrounded by Government troops. A bold attempt was made by them to break the lines of the Versailles army and return to Paris, but it proved utterly futile.

Le Temp publishes a dispatch from Louis Blanc to the Versailles Assembly to negotiate with Thiers for conditions of the new election law to embrace a convocation of electors for the choice of Constitutional Assembly.

The Cri Du Peuple asserts that the Federalists maintain their position; that they repulsed the attack of the troops on the bridge of Neuilly; that they have retaken Chatillon, dismounted the enemy's batteries near Vanvres and captured two mitrailleuses.

PARIS, April 7.—To-day a battle is raging in the fields between Chatillon and Vanvres. At the latter place the insurgents maintain the fort.

LONDON, April 7.—A dispatch from Paris says several shells burst within the walls of houses in Avenue de L'Imperatrice.

The Communists determined to continue the contest and have greatly strengthened the fortifications at Montmartre and Batiegnes.

Gen. Cluseret is reorganizing the National Guards.

Hopes are entertained that an armistice of 48 hours will be concluded for the exchange of prisoners.

A new corps, called the Paris Avengers, is in course of formation, members of which are to operate as skirmishers.

An Alarming Situation.

PARIS, April 7.—The situation is hourly becoming more alarming. The forces of the Commune are growing stronger and bolder. Thiers' proposition to treat has inspired the Commune with fresh hopes, and it is believed they have 100,000 men who will boldly fight the Government troops, retain conquered positions and make no advance for peace. The slaughter on both sides yesterday and to-day was fearful. Churches and houses of aristocrats are pillaged, and all priests imprisoned. German intervention is the only hope.

Details of the Fighting.

LONDON, April 8.—Details of the fighting at Neuilly, on Friday, have been received. The Communists, who posted a small force at Courbevie, were dislodged by the guns of Fort Valerien. They rallied in Avenue de Neuilly and opened fire on the Versailles troops, who appeared on the heights. The Communists were again forced to retire behind the bridge of the Neuilly, which they barricaded. Their pursuers then shelled and demolished the barricades. The Nationals suffered heavily in attempting to hold the bridge, and fell into temporary disorder, but succeeded in extricating their cannon, and abandoned the bridge, taking refuge in houses on the the eastern bank of the river. Assemblists also occupied the buildings on the other side, and a sharp fusilade was kept up across the river. They then passed across the bridge in pursuit of the retreating insurgents. The guns of the ramparts opened a heavy fire, sweeping Avenue de Neuilly with shells and checking pursuit. The Communists again commenced to throw up barricades across the Avenue, under protection of artillery under the walls, but were ultimately driven out of Neuilly and withdrew beneath the ramparts. The fighting, which was desperate throughout, commenced at ten o'clock in the morning and ended at sunset, at which time seven guns still protected the gates. The forts are silent.

Picard officially announces complete success of the Government forces after a hard struggle, lasting two days, Thursday and Friday. He admits that Gen. Biston was killed. Nationals, numbering some 4,000, attempted a reconnoisance on Friday toward Chatillon and failed to accomplish anything.

The Fighting Continues with Bloody Results.

VERSAILLES, April 8.—The Government troops carried Denouilly yesterday afternoon, and crossed the Seine at 2:30 P. M., under a tremendous fire from the guns and mitrailleurs of the insurgents. They advanced up the Avenue Neuilly, driving the insurgents furiously back inside the city, and advanced as far as Ponte Maillett. The slaughter was great. Troops hold a position under the ramparts. The rebels in forts Issy and Vanvres have ceased firing, and now the troops are so near Paris that they are firing shells into the city continually. The greatest consternation prevails. Insurgents suffered heavily. The Government troops fought most splendidly at Nanterre, where Gen. Garrifet whipped the rebels badly. No particulars of the fight have been received.

LONDON, April 8.—The Paris dispatch of the Times says that the insurgents have already commenced to put into execution their threats of retaliation on the prisoners they have taken. The Commune prevents the opening of the churches. Nearly all the cures have been thrown into prison.

Reports that a portion of the Prussian army is near Paris and had been ordered to enter the city are unfounded.

Marshal McMahon commands the army of Versailles. He has established his headquarters at Petettranen. Gen. Vinoy has charge of the reserves.

Thiers in a circular dated April 7th says yesterday Gen. Darneris carried the insurgents' position at Courbevoi, and to-day the insurgents' position at Neuilly bridge was carried. Mantainen was slightly wounded, and Pechot seriously. Insurgents' losses are immense. Positions captured are decisive.

The Telegraph's special says the Assembly troops are at Ponte Maillet and hold a position under the ramparts, and Issy and Vanvres have ceased firing.

Paris has provisions for only two days. A collapse is imminent.

PARIS, April 7.—The Nationals, on Thursday night occupied the barricade of Neuilly, which to-day the Versailles batteries fiercely attacked. The Nationals defended and shells were raining until 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The Versailles troops apparently intended an assault, but attacked the barricade instead of the right and left flank.

MARSEILLES, April 8.—The city is tranquil. Cremieux Palissie and some others have been arrested.

WASHINGTON CITY.

The Ku Klux Bill.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—In the Senate, the Ku Klux bill was received from the House, read twice and referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The Senate took up the concurrent resolution from the House for a joint special investigating committee on the South. The pending amendment being that added by the House, increasing the number of the committee to fourteen from the House and seven from the Senate, was concurred in, and the resolution adopted—ayes, 37; noes, 13—a party vote. The Vice President then appointed as members on the part of the Senate the present select committee on Southern outrages—Scott, Chandler, Nye, Rice, Wilson, Bayard and Blair.

EASTERN STATES.

Riot in Pennsylvania.

SCRANTON, April 7.—About 1,000 men, armed with muskets, clubs and revolvers, visited Tripp's mine in this city, this morning, and prevented the workmen from entering. Three miners employed at the works, were shot dead by the mob, and others pelted with stones so that they will probably die. Last night Norris & Weeks' retail coal works in this city were torn down, most of their mine blown down and the track torn up. A large mob is now engaged in driving men out of the mines near the mills. The several gangs of men raised the Irish-American flag, and have the arms of two militia companies. Great excitement prevails here, and a bloody time is expected. Gen. Osborne, of Wilkesbarre, has been telegraphed for troops. The Mayor of this city was hooted while reading the riot act to the mob to-day. There is not an American militia company in the entire northern half of this (Lucerne) county. The mob altogether numbers over 1,000 men, and they are increasing rapidly. Such mines as are being worked here, connected near this city, were besieged to-day and a suspension of work compelled.

The proper authorities for preserving the peace are moving slowly, and unless decisive measures are taken at once the whole city will be under the terrorism of the rioters. Two coal breakers were destroyed this afternoon.

Murder in Chicago.

CHICAGO, April 8.—Dr. Scannell, a well known young physician of this city, and husband of Agnes Leonard, a well known authoress, was shot and instantly killed last night, by his brother-in-law P. A. Leonard. The shooting occurred on the sidewalk in front of a house which they occupied together, on Jackson street. It grew out of a quarrel of long standing between the parties about family matters. A coroner's inquest is now being held, and from the statements of witnesses of the affair, as published in the papers, the killing seems to have been altogether unjustifiable, if not premeditated.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—The Russian Consul announces that Hutchinson, Kohl & Co., of San Francisco, received from Russia, a lease of Copper, Robber and Behring Islands; also, contract for furnishing medicines, provisions, powder, shot, arms, etc., to the inhabitants of Kurlile, Suiruale, Urup and Shuishu Islands. These supplies were all hitherto furnished from St. Petersburg. The same firm concluded a purchase of all trading posts, vessels, goods, and fur stations of the Russian American Commercial Company. J. M. Moss is President both in Alaska and Russian Asia, and will succeed to the business of that Company. The transfer of the papers and property is made to-day.

It is reported that about sunset this evening, a young girl was enticed into an alley running from Kearney street, near Sutter, and outraged. The police are now searching for the perpetrator of the outrage.

The China girl, for whom a dozen claimants have appeared, (two of whom got out writs of habeas corpus for her when she sought protection of the police from being compelled to lead a life of prostitution) was married to a Chinese merchant in the County Court to-day.

The contract for the erection of Union soldier's and sailors' monument has been entered into, though only $4,000, all told, has been raised for the purchase.

Sergeant Burkes, privates Slidell, Halsey and Rankin, stationed at Yerba Buena Island, are supposed to have drowned during the gale on Wednesday, having started for this city in a small boat, and not heard from since.

Joseph Wilson, a sailor who killed James W. Eustace, second officer of the steamer California, was convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to three years in the State prison.

Fifty-nine deaths in this city this week.

Patrick Richards, who shot himself at Rudolph's gun-store, on Pacific street, this morning, had recently arrived from Arizona, and was penniless. He was taken to the hospital. The ball entered his side and cannot be found.

The District Attorney is commencing suits against bondsmen of all parties indicted in criminal courts forfeiting their bonds. It is said that not a dollar was ever realized in San Francisco from forfeited bonds.

Letters in the Fair-Crittenden case, from both deceased and prisoner, have been finally admitted to be read in evidence, by Judge Dwinelle, and the reading of correspondence will commence Monday.

Billiards.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—Dion beat Deery, 500 points—French carom game—(three ball) last evening, in 78 innings, scoring 500 against Deery's 476. Deery came up rapidly in the latter part of the game, and would undoubtedly have won had the game been for 1,000 points.

A grand match between Joseph and Cyrille Dion, and Rudolphe and Deery—American four ball carom game, for $1,000 a side, 2,000 points, is being played at Platt's Hall this evening with a large audience in attendance. Before the commencement of the game, considerable sparring took place between Rudolphe and Cyrille Dion, in apparent ill humor. Rudolphe challenged Dion to play him a three ball game, 500 points, to-morrow night, for $1,000 a side, and half the money was put up on the spot, each party loudly cheered by their respective friends. Cyrille Dion then led off with a run of 27 points, ending by throwing his ball off upon the floor. Deery followed with a run of 18. Joseph Dion followed with a run of 106. Rudolphe played last, missing. Joseph Dion then made 9; Deery missing; C. Dion then made 3; Rudolphe made 27—balls breaking badly. On Joseph Dion's fifth inning, he made another run of 108. Game called: 285 for Dions; 79 for Rudolphe and Deery. Rudolphe then missed and was hissed. C. Dion the same. Rudolphe then made a run of 34 on his 7th inning; C. Dion made a run of 183. The game at half-past nine stood 484 for Dions, 244 for Rudolphe and Deery.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

A Chinaman Killed at Dutch Flat.

DUTCH FLAT, April 8.—Rice King, a watchman in the claim of S. R. Kidder, discovered a Chinaman crouching in the sluice boxes about 3 o'clock this morning. He emptied one barrel of a shotgun, loaded with buckshot, but without effect, causing him to take leg bail. He then discharged the other barrel, wounding him, but without stopping his speed. A race ensued, in which King overtook him and broke the gun barrel over his head, killing the Chinaman.

Shooting Affray at Oroville.

OROVILLE, April 8.—A shooting affray, with a probable fatal result, occurred here to-night between Mike O'Hara, a blacksmith, and Joseph Underwood, night bar tender at the Union. The affair grew out of a case of assault which was tried against one of Mike's friends, Underwood being the principal witness, and his testimony convicting the party. Mike and his friends swore revenge against Underwood, and last Thursday night about 11 o'clock he confronted him at the hotel. Three shots were fired, when the parties were separated. To-night Mike started out to look for Underwood, it is said, with the intention of killing him. They met. Before O'Hara could shoot, Underwood fired three times, two balls taking effect, one in the groin and the other in the left side. O'Hara is in great pain, and from the nature of his wounds will probably die. Underwood is in custody, but it is thought will be released on the ground of self-defense.

Wrecks Reported.

SAN DIEGO, April 8.—The schooner Signet, twelve days from Scammon's Lagoon, with 100 turtles, arrived yesterday. She brings the captain and crew of the schooner Ann Eliza, which went ashore at Scammon's Lagoon on the 16th of March, and proved a total loss. The Ann Eliza was loaded with the cargo rescued from the wreck of the whaling bark Massachusetts, which was bound for San Francisco and was lost while beating out of the Lagoon.

The sloop Chelsea Smith, from Scammon's Lagoon, is now overdue twelve days. It is feared she has been lost.

A Noted "Grizzly" Killed.

LOS ANGELES, April 8.—The bear known as "Club-foot," which has been for years the terror of the Tejon mountains, and for which a reward of $1,000 has been standing for some time, was found dead in the Tejon mountains, and all indications show that he is the same bear which so fearfully mangled Searles a few weeks since. Nine deaths are attributable to the bear. Only last year two brothers fell victims to his ferocity.

ARIZONA.

Fire at Prescott—More Indian Murders—Mining News Favorable.

LOS ANGELES, April 8.—The Prescott Arizonian contains the following: Monday night a block of frame buildings on the corner of Granite and Gurley streets, was destroyed by fire; loss, $15,000; cause, accidental.

Col. Snively and six men, while looking for a route for a road from Phoenix to Bradshaw, were attacked. The Colonel and three others were killed and their bodies shockingly mutilated.

Late news from all mining districts southeast and west of Prescott is better than any heretofore published. Near the Del Pasco every gulch is filled with placer miners, who were making from $10 to $20 per day.

The Ku Klux in South Carolina—Proclamation by President Grant.

From the New York Herald, March 24.

The President yesterday issued a preliminary proclamation, reciting the disorders prevailing in South Carolina through the terrorism excited by the Ku Klux raiders, and warning these "unlawful combinations of armed men" to disperse and retire peaceably to their homes in twenty days. In his message to Congress some days ago President Grant, in treating of the general state of disorder throughout the South, said that the authority of the Executive for quelling such disorder was not clear. In the present case, however, he finds his authority clear enough in the application of Governor Scott, the Legislature not being in session, for national aid to save the State from domestic violence—an application that places this preliminary action of the President, and the further action that it presages, fairly and squarely in harmony with article four, section four of the Constitution. There is no doubt that this proclamation does presage something further. It means the dispersal at once of the Ku Klux Klans who have been making life there a hideous fright, the return of the Republican Governor in peace and safety to his duties, and the restoration of order and security at once; or else it means the immediate rushing of United States troops into the State and the enforcement of peace in a manner that will remind some old South Carolinians of the nullification days when General Scott and General Jackson preserved the Union, "by the Eternal."

The six years that have passed since the close of the civil war have not served to obliterate from the minds of our Union-loving people their hearty hatred of the causeless rebellion, nor to teach them to be particularly merciful to those unthinking or else unscrupulous spirits in the South who threaten to get up a new one. Nor is General Grant—who holds in his hands the personal paroles, dated as far back as Appomattox Court House, of the very men who have been creating these disorders in South Carolina—the man to rely upon any half way measures of enforcing the law against them. It is to be hoped the Ku Klux remember that characteristic of his, and will disperse quietly at once.

Our telegrams and correspondence, and the official documents in the hands of Senate committees, show beyond a doubt that the Ku Klux have kept South Carolina and several other Southern States in a condition of anarchy equalled alone probably by the present Reign of Terror in Paris. The fact that the Democrats, both North and South, [illegible] done, if they do not openly [illegible] the doings of this "unlawful combination," is incontestible evidence that such doings spring from old rebel hatred of Northerners and "niggers," and therein they contain the germ whence sprung the rebellion of 1861. It is good and broad statesmanship on the part of General Grant, therefore, as well as it is his official duty, under the requirements of the Constitution, to put down this spectre of rebellion at once, before it becomes like the powerful giant of flesh and blood that has just cost the country so many years of war and anguish and so many millions of treasure and lives to overcome.

The President.

[From Harper's Weekly, April 1.]

The ferocious abuse of General Grant by the Democratic press is an illustration of the real feeling of that party. It cannot forgive his victory over the rebellion. It hopes by a fog of slander to obscure the national remembrance of his great and glorious service to the country. But the people of the United States know very well that the worst mistake of his administration is white as snow compared with the deeds of that nest of traitors and rebels, the last Democratic National administration. While the Democratic papers sneer at the Cabinet, whose personal character and efficient official service they cannot question, the people have not forgotten the last Democratic Cabinet, in which Jeremiah S. Black, who declared that the Union could not lawfully be maintained by arms, was Secretary of State; and Howell Cobb, one of the chief rebel chiefs, was Secretary of the Treasury, plotting to destroy the credit of the nation; and Jacob Thompson was Secretary of Interior; and Isaac Toucey, who sent the national ships out of reach, was Secretary of the Navy; and John B. Floyd, who tried to transfer the national arms to rebels before the war began, who fled as a rebel General from Fort Donelson, and who died execrated by every honorable American, was Secretary of War.

This precious society of patriots was the last Cabinet which the Democratic party furnished to the country, and its head was James Buchanan, whose supporters now gibe at Gen. Grant! James Buchanan was the faithful instrument of the slave-masters, and when they raised their hands to destroy the Union and the Government, that great Democratic statesman, under the advice of Jeremiah Black, whimpered that they had no right to do so, and that the country had no right to help itself! These were the men whom the Democratic party and papers, which now abuse Gen. Grant, called to power when they last carried a national election. And the party is not changed. As it was the organization by which slavery worked its will then, so it is that by which the Ku-Klux would work its will now. As it elected Vance to the Senate from North Carolina, and Blair from Missouri, when he said that he would undo reconstruction by the army, so it would send Jefferson Davis from Mississippi, and Robert Toombs from Georgia, could it but have a little more encouragement.

The Democratic hatred of Gen. Grant is the Ku-Klux hatred of loyal men in the Southern States. He is the perpetual monument of the crushed rebellion. His presence in the White House is the constant assertion of supremacy of the Republican principles of liberty, union and law. The same spirit which hissed at Lincoln as a gorilla and a despot, and at the Union soldiers as hirelings, denounced Grant in the field as a butcher, and scolds at him now as a fool.

But he was not dismayed by Democratic rage when it took the form of fire, and he is not likely to be disheartened by it now that it is froth. But when the abuse is loudest it is well to reflect what party it is that utters it, and how its men and its services to the country compare with Gen. Grant and what he has done. It is natural that those who thought Robert E. Lee a Christian, hero and gentleman should think Gen. Grant a butcher; that those who sneer at Longstreet as unfaithful to his cause because, when conquered, he honestly surrendered, should refuse to honor Gen. Thomas; and those who excused the horrors of Andersonville should make light of the Ku-Klux Klan. This is all natural, but is it to such a spirit that the government of the country can be safely intrusted?

The following are the municipal officers of Eugene City elected last week: A. S. Patterson, President of the Council; Joel Ware, B. F. Dorris, and Jerry Ream, Councilmen; J. F. Brown, Recorder; Mark Stevens, Treasurer; Joe Donahoo, Marshal.

Testimony Regarding the Ku-Klux.

Important facts regarding the organization and objects of the Ku-Klux were developed during the impeachment trial of Gov. Holden of North Carolina, who was removed from office recently by a Ku-Klux Legislature for having tried to suppress the "Klan" in that State, and punish its agents who have perpetrated numerous murders and other acts of violence. Witnesses were called from whom testimony was obtained that they were members of the organization, that their creed was hatred of the Republican party and the negro race; that they were to go to the rescue of members at all hazards, swear for him as witnesses and acquit him as jurors.

From several white Democrats and ex-rebels this evidence was extorted. James E. Boyd, Eli S. Eulis, and John W. Long, among others, gave reluctant testimony that they were members of the Klan. Boyd testified that "it was part of the oath that no member should give State's evidence against another, and that he should even swear falsely," and that it was part of the object of the organization "to preserve the Constitution as it was before the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments were added." "The oath," said Long in his testimony, "required me to do all I could to overturn the Republican party; * * * part of the obligation was to deprive negroes of all rights under the laws; the main object was to prevent negroes from voting, by going around disguised and frightening them so that they would not go to the polls."

Of course this conduct speedily develops into all sorts of ruffianism. In Kentucky the Klan has grown bold and defiant. The Louisville Courier-Journal, the great Democratic paper of the South, would not be likely to bear false witness in asserting the existence of this organized outlawry. It first begged the Legislature of Kentucky to take measures to suppress it, and gave a startling list of outrages that called for punishment and redress. But the Legislature, being in sympathy with the political purposes of the Klan, refused to take action. The Courier-Journal then said:

> The Legislature has done nothing. It has allowed the disease to grow worse under its very eyes and has refused to raise a finger to save [illegible] the peace of society or the credit of Kentucky or the name of the Democratic party. It [illegible] subjecting the State to reproach and its constituents to the peril of their lives. For two [illegible] it has as much as said to outlawry, "Do [illegible] will, we will not disturb you." [illegible] outlawry very naturally grows confident and [illegible] From the dirty work of poking into remote [illegible] unprotected negro cabins, hid away among [illegible] obscure recesses of old fields and woodlands, [illegible] the public highway. Next, growing [illegible] fearsome, it comes down upon the unguarded [illegible] service of the Government. [illegible] unresisted and unassailed, it enters the [illegible] itself, and defies the very lion in its den. Did we say "lion?" A pretty lion, to [illegible] that at Frankfort! A lion that roars [illegible] when the day is clear, but is as dumb as a dog [illegible] whilst ruffianism overthrows State rights, and rides rough shod over the very tem[illegible] sworn to defend.

[illegible] such testimony as this, and with an [illegible] list of murders and other outrages [illegible] fore him, will any one have the temerity to say that the Klan is a myth, and that it is a piece of "tyranny" for the Government [illegible] attempt to suppress it?

A French Civil War and its Horrors.

[illegible] misjudging Americans who, after [illegible] the French Emperor at Sedan, be[illegible] sympathize with France as with the [illegible] Republicanism," and to deprecate [illegible] Germany in continuing the war, [illegible] the ground that such action was in the interest of monarchism and against popular liberty, will now probably revise their opinions. The horrible events now transpiring [illegible] Paris show what kind of "Republicanism" [illegible] is that prevails in France. Pity 'tis that Germany while she was about it, did not [illegible] effectually crush and stamp out this sort of "republican liberty," which is now deluging France with her own blood and bringing reproaches on the world's humanity!

The horrors of the civil wars of the great Revolution are being re-enacted. Who can think of La Vendee without shuddering? or the horrible scenes of Toulon, where the [illegible] of the first Napoleon first ascended the [illegible]? Those events tell the world what [illegible] war in France means; and now it appears they are being actually repeated in and about Paris. The ferocity of the French in [illegible] war has been as conspicuous as their [illegible] in past times on the battle-fields of Europe. The spirit that animates them may obtain illustration in the following by our own great dramatist:

Now let not nature's hand
Keep the wild flood confined! Let order die!
And let the world no longer be a stage,
To feed contention in a lingering act;
But let one spirit of the first-born Cain
Reign in all bosoms, that, each heart being set
On bloody courses, the rude scene may end
And darkness be the burier of the dead!

There can be no genuine republicanism where the people have not self-control. This the French have not, and hence they rush from the extreme of Red Republican license to the [illegible] of despotisms, and shout with [illegible] for either. Paris wants to govern France, and in the name of republicanism has precipitated civil war in order to [illegible] that object. These horrors will [illegible] bably continue till the German armies interfere or till a strong hand seizes the helm in France. Self-control and moderation in a people, the only conditions on which a republic can possibly exist, are totally wanting. They who have been sympathizing with "republican France" will now see that their sympathy has been wasted, and will probably be the more ready to do Germany justice than they were awhile ago.

Trouble has long been brewing among the coal men in Pennsylvania, and the dispatches say it has now culminated in a riot. The miners have associations which fix the rates of wages for mining coal and which also attempt to regulate and limit the amount to be mined, so as to keep up the price of the article and insure good wages. These associations have resolved to prevent the mining of coal except under the regulations they prescribe, and to this end they mob all miners who show a disposition to work outside of their rules. This action seems to be taken in retaliation for some of the shameful tricks of operators and employees, whereby employees have been ill-treated and oppressed. Gov. Geary in a recent message gives an instance of a fact of which he was cognizant in 1868. "The operators," he said, "when the market was stocked, quietly stowed away their surplus tons at the general market, and when the proper time came ordered the miners to strike, and, to afford a pretext, announced a scale of prices so low that they were obliged to strike or starve. Straightway coal shot up in price in New York, and the operators pocketed over $5,000,000." This statement gives a view of some of the causes of the present troubles.

A Good Suggestion.

A few days ago the Secretary of the Treasury received a bill of exchange for fifty thousand dollars from Baden Baden, to be placed to the credit of the conscience fund, the sender declaring himself a former citizen of the United States. It may be proper to explain the nature of this conscience fund. Since the war the Treasurer of the United States has been compelled to create a special fund, to which moneys are charged received from any individual whose conscience compels him to restore the value of anything stolen from Uncle Sam. This is called the "Conscience Fund."

It has been suggested in this connection that if the Democratic party should ever be troubled with any conscience they might take upon themselves to pay the national debt, for most of it was incurred, directly or indirectly, through their agency, and nothing less than paying the whole of it could relieve them of the load under which they now stagger.

The Washington Chronicle throws out this suggestion as a proper plank in their platform in 1872.

On Saturday the Herald was the laughing stock of the town. It came out with barnyard poultry at the head of its columns, followed by several large display lines, jubilating over the Connecticut election! Its readers were informed that "Connecicut is still ours," that "English is re-elected Governor," and that a "Democratic Congressman is gained. Now inasmuch as the latest dispatches printed in its own columns indicate that there has been no election of Governor by the people and that the election of this officer will go to the Legislature where the Republicans have a large majority; that the Republicans have elected three of the four Congressmen in the State, beating the Democrats on the Congressional vote by over 1,600 majority; that the balance of the Republican State ticket with the exception of Governor is elected; that the Republicans have thirty majority on joint ballot in the Legislature, and that the Democats have not gained a Congressman;—and when in addition to all this it is remembered that last year the Democrats in Connecticut elected their whole ticket by nearly 1,000 majority, it does not exactly appear where the "Democratic victory" on this occasion comes in.

In the Dominion Parliament on the 31st of March, after the rejection of several amendments to the Government plan for the admission of British Columbia into the Dominion, and for the construction of a Pacific Railroad, it was adopted by a vote of ninety-one to seventy. So British Columbia joins Canada, and the construction of a railroad to the Pacific ocean, on British-American soil, is to be attempted.

The Postmaster-General of Canada stated recently that the claims of that country for the Fenian raid had been submitted to the Joint High Commission at Washington. If they were not entertained by the American Commissioners, the Government of Canada would press them on the attention of the British Government.

The U. P. Presbytery of Oregon will meet at Brownsville on Wednesday, April 12th, at 7½ P. M., to continue over the following Sunday.

At the County Clerk's office in Salem, a deed for the lands of the O. & C. R. R. Co. has been filed for record. The transfer is to the Oregon and European Land Company.

From the Corvallis Gazette: Last week the committee appointed by the Board of Trustees of Corvallis College, for that purpose, purchased thirty-five acres of land of Mr. Geo. Roberts adjoining the city on the west, for the use of the Agricultural Department of Corvallis College. The price paid for this land and improvements, including a neat cottage house and outbuildings, orchard, shrubbery, etc., was $4,500.

From the Statesman: We learn that the Water Company have purchased one and a half miles of six and eight inch (interior diameter) water pipe, which is expected to arrive here in May. They have also two engines of capacity to lift 60,000 gallons of water per hour to a hight of one hundred feet. One is of sufficient power, but the object is to have another on hand in case of accident. The expectation is to have water supplied for use in this city during the month of July. The location of the works and the character of the reservoir yet remain to be determined.

From the Statesman: At the office of the P. T. Co. we have an interesting comparative table, showing that the river freights of the present season are not behind former years, notwithstanding the fact that a large amount of Oregon products have lately been transported on the railroad. During the eight months ending April 1st, 1869, the down freights were 20,207 tons; for same to 1870, there were 23,561 tons; for same to 1871, 24,722 tons. The up freights for the present year are not quite so large, but the difference is more than made up by the increase of transportation down stream. There is a perceptible increase, Mr. Patton informs us, in the transportation of wares of home manufacture, which is a favorable sign for the country. Judging that the railroad has also carried thousands of tons of freight down, these figures show that Oregon has increased her surplus products in 1871 over 1870 at least one-third.

Last Friday, as we learn from the Statesman, a young man named John Howell, while chopping wood in a brush pasture about 11 miles from Salem, discovered a five dollar piece turned up by a horse's track. This led to further search, and near by on a space of not more than a hands breadth he found a pile of coins which he states in his notice to be "over $100." The coin was all gold, and dulled in appearance by exposure, and had lain so long that the purse which held it had entirely rotted away, though there was some thing near by which might have once been leather. The dates, too, were ancient, and the probability is, that ever so long ago, in those days when money was a drug, and the gold mines were not played out, some one who had so much money that he couldn't miss a single purse full, camped on French Prairie and left this souvenir behind him. Mr. Howell advertises for the owner of the property.

A Washington letter to the Eugene Journal gives this: The Oregon mail bids have been opened and placed upon the books, but nearly all the important routes are suspended on the ground that they are "not needed." The route 15142 from Brownsville, by Crawfordsville and Camp Creek, to Eugene City, 40 miles and back once a week, is let to James Watkins for $597 87 per annum. On the following routes there are plenty of bids, some of them extremely low, but they are all suspended for further action, on the ground that they are "not needed," or for other reasons; 15145, from Dalles City to Ochoco Valley, 125 miles and back once a week; 15146, Dalles City, by 15 Mile Creek, Tygh Valley, Oak Grove, Warm Spring Reservation, and Willow Creek, to Upper Ochoco, 130 miles and back once a week; 15148, from Hot Springs by Fort Klamath, to Jacksonville, 230 miles and back, once a week, 15152, from Jacksonville, by Link River, Lost River, Hot Springs and Goose Lake Valley, to Lake City, in Surprise Valley, California, 200 miles and back once a week; 15153, from Eugene City by Butte Disappointment, Pine Openings, Diamond Peak, Sprague's Valley, Round Grove, Drew's Valley, Goose Lake and Surprise Valley, to Winnemucca, Nevada, 450 miles and back, once a week.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Jeff. Davis was serenaded in Selma, Ala., a few nights ago, and, alluding to the "lost cause," closed his remarks with the expression of the hope that he would yet live to see the sovereignty of the States vindicated. That sentiment, also, was the substance of the Oregon Herald's leading article of Sunday morning.

We have been profoundly interested in the extraordinary virtues, talents and greatness which the Democratic papers have suddenly discovered in Senator Sumner. Instead of being a "pretentious pedant" he has swiftly developed into an "accomplished scholar." Instead of a "fierce fanatic," he is now a "great statesman." Instead of a "narrow partisan," he is a "broad and independent Senator."

Senator Stevenson, of Kentucky, in a speech the other day opposed all legislation against the Ku-Klux. He regarded that body as a myth, and declared there was no necessity for such legislation. But he was utterly demolished by Senator Morton, who quietly asked him what he meant by his message to the legislature of Kentucky, a short time ago, when he was Governor of that State, asking for authority and means to put down "organized bands of assassins?"

On the 23th March during a debate in the Senate on San Domingo, Mr. Morton showed by official dispatches that the action of President Tyler in warning Mexico not to enter into Texas pending negotiations for its annexation, furnished a precedent for the action of President Grant in the matter of the San Domingo negotiation, for which he has been censured by Messrs. Sumner and Schurz. Morton had the facts on his side, and made a powerful presentation of them. He was not answered.

Senator Harlan, of Iowa, recently replied to the labored arguments of Senators Sumner and Schurz against President Grant on the San Domingo question. He showed that their arguments amounted to nothing more than this · President Grant had prevented the Haytians from cutting the throats of the Dominicans while the treaty of annexation to the United States was pending. Not a gun had been fired, nor a drop of blood spilled, yet President Grant was denounced as worse than Andrew Johnson and a Ku Klux. He believed that the enmity of Schurz to President Grant was because the President had removed some Missouri Postmasters who were adherents of Schurz.

A Times Washington correspondent says that after it was determined that Sumner's speech was to be made, Senator Buckingham went to him and entreated him to include in it a paragraph disclaiming any purpose or feeling of hostility toward the Republican party, so that his speech could not be used against the success of the party in the election in Connecticut. Ex Governor Buckingham foresaw that unless Sumner drew in his speech a sharp line between the party and the Administration, the effect in that State of his fierce arraignment would be deeply felt. Sumner said he would take it into consideration, and having done so, next day he declined absolutely to comply with the request, and it will be noticed that no such disclaimer appears. But the speech produced no effect in Connecticut.

The traveling Southern correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial produces this literary curiosity as an exact copy of the notice of the impeachment articles against Governor Clayton, of Arkansas, read in the Senate while that body was below a quorum: "Mr President in obidience to the Order of the house of representatives We Appear before you and in the name of the house of representatives and of all The people of the State of arkansas We do impeach powell Clayton governor Of arkansas of high crimes and misde manors in office and we further inform the senate That the house of representatives will in due Time exhibit particular articles of impeachment against him and make good the Saim And in their name we demand that the Senate take Auder for the appearance Of said powell Clayton to answer Said impeachment. D. J. SMITH, chmn."

The Sans Culottes Leaders.

AN ACCOUNT OF THE LEADERS OF THE REPUBLICAN REDS—WHO THE INSURGENT CHIEFS AT PARIS ARE.

[From the New York Herald]

We publish below brief sketches of the leaders of the Paris insurgents whose names have been made public. As will be seen all belong to the old Red Republican party.

GENERAL DUVAL.

This officer, who appears to hold the position of Commander-in-Chief of the insurgent forces, is a soldier by profession. He entered the French army in the second quarter of the present century, and was one of the first to agree to the overthrow of Charles X. Soon after the accession of Louis Philippe he gave evidence of holding republican sentiments, and immediately after the overthrow of the "Citizen King," gave in his adhesion to the Republic. He opposed the Presidency of Louis Napoleon, but retained his position in the army until after the coup d'etat, when he sent in his resignation. From that time until the overthrow of the Empire in September last he remained in private life, taking no part in politics, but recognized as an unswerving Republican. After the 3d of September he again took up arms, was commissioned a General and served during the siege of Paris. He seems to have been one of the leaders of the Montmartre insurgents from the start, and his recent proclamation, a synopsis of which we published yesterday, indicates that he is a communist.

GENERAL CREMER.

It is a difficult matter to state what are the politics of General Cremer. As will be seen in our cable dispatches he has been summoned to appear at Versailles for trial by court martial, for participating in the insurrection. He is one of the military leaders of the insurrection. At the outbreak of the war with Prussia he was a capitaine de l'etat major (staff officer) of the imperial army. After Gambetta went to Tours, Cremer and a captain of engineers, named Bretolles, had an interview with him, which resulted in Bretolles' appointment to a major generalship and to Cremer's receiving a brigadier general's commission. It appears that this sudden promotion resulted from the two young officers laying before Gambetta a plan of campaign which that fiery official at once adopted, and recognized in the planners officers of the first military genius. Cremer was placed in command of a brigade of some 7,000 men, forming part of Bretolles' division. The troops lay near Dijon, and one fine day Cremer, in disobedience of the orders of his superior, marched them to Dijon. Bretolles hurried to Tours to complain to Gambetta, but before he could reach that place Cremer had telegraphed a report of a victory he had gained over the Prussians. It was a trifling affair, but victories were scarce, and Gambetta at once promoted him to a major generalship in the army of Bourbaki. Cremer's division did good service during the fatal campaign to relieve Belfort, and fought hard during the retreat which it covered. After the preliminary treaty of peace Cremer went to Paris, and has since been there. He is said to be both ambitious and unscrupulous, and is altogether a dangerous man.

M. ASSY.

Almost every reader of the Herald has heard of M. Assy, one of the leaders of the Workingmen's International Society. He is a native of southeast France, and was at one time an employe at the great iron works of Creuzot, belonging to M. Schneider, late President of the Corps Legislatif under the empire. Some years ago he drifted into politics, and soon became prominent in the political and social questions which have agitated France. While Secretary to the Association Internationale des Ouvriers, the politico-social disturbances at Creuzot took place, and he was arrested and tried for complicity in them, and was acquitted. Subsequently he left Creuzot and took up his residence in Paris, where he has been since conspicuous for his participation in public matters affecting the workingmen. Personally he is said to be a most agreeable man, but politically he is regarded as one of the ablest and most dangerous demagogues in France. He is a socialist, and holds with Blanqui, Flourens and the rest the absurd and Utopian social and political theories of his party.

MILITARY FUSS AND FEATHERS. [illegible] attempt is to be made, we hear, to induce [illegible] missioners for this county to give [illegible] for the benefit of a new militia co[illegible] hope this will not be done. Without [illegible] disparage other militia companies [illegible] that we think this county is now [illegible] direction quite as much money, drawn [illegible] tax payers, as the said tax payers have [illegible] ticular interest in handing over for [illegible] The county is paying, we believe [illegible] allowance to two companies, neither [illegible] up to the minimum number which would [illegible] each company to the allowance. Those [illegible] were organized several years ago [illegible] was some sense and some possible use for [illegible] and both of them have had more than the [illegible] number of enrolled and active members [illegible] the object of the persons who are urging [illegible] this matter be to create or cultivate a [illegible] among our young men, or to educate [illegible] military discipline so as to make them [illegible] in case of need, why not fill up the two [illegible] old companies to the maximum? [illegible] not be simply to make a brigade of [illegible] that the Brigadier General, the Colonel [illegible] Colonels and the Majors may have something to command on parade days, in time of profound peace, then we think the people don't want [illegible] Experience has shown that even two companies cannot be kept up in this city, to the [illegible] why multiply the squads? The [illegible] for a new company is an actual damage [illegible] the old companies, as well as in case of getting the allowance, a heavy burden upon the [illegible] Let us have peace and save our money.

DR. M. D. MERRICK.—We regret that through [illegible] last Friday evening, we omitted to mention the lecture delivered by Dr. M. D. Merrick [illegible] Good Templars' Hall, on the subject of "Alco[illegible] the great moral evil of the age. We [illegible] address commended on all hands as an able and eloquent effort in behalf of the temperance cause. The Doctor is an earnest champion of the [illegible] of Good Templars, and from what we learn of [illegible] labors in other parts of the State he is building for himself an enduring monument in the [illegible] teem of all good men.

FOR, OR AGAINST?—The Herald admits into [illegible] a communication in opposition to the [illegible] terms of this city by the West Side railroad. [illegible] correspondent doesn't want the road to run through Fourth street. Of course, if it can't run through Fourth street, (the street through which [illegible] has always been understood it would run) [illegible] enter the city at all. Now, is the Herald [illegible] to commit itself against the building of [illegible] into the city? Is this the result for which [illegible] $100,000 subsidy was raised?

HEBREW BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION. [illegible] annual election, yesterday, of [illegible] Hebrew Benevolent Association [illegible] gentlemen were chosen for the [illegible] President, L. H. Mills; First Lieutenant, Alexander Campbell; Second Lieutenant, Horatio Cooke; First Sergeant, A. Sutherland; Secretary, Wm. Abernethy; Treasurer, Thomas [illegible] tain.

STILL COMING.—Since our mention of the arrival of Mr. Charles Lawrence from [illegible] for the purpose of locating here we have [illegible] arrival of several others from [illegible] Idaho, who have come down to [illegible] country. Some of them bring [illegible] while others have come down to [illegible]

ZION SUNDAY SCHOOL EXHIBITION.—There will be an exhibition this evening by the scholars of the Zion M. E. Sunday School, at the church on Third street, between B and C streets, under the management of Mr. W. Hunter, the Superintendent, the proceeds to be devoted to the [illegible] of the church; admission twenty five cents.

NEW FERRY-BOAT.—Mr. Joe. Knott's new ferryboat, built at Westport, was towed up to this city Saturday night. The boat is finished except that the passenger cabin is yet to be [illegible] the machinery shall be put in. She looks [illegible] staunch, fine boat, about the size of the old [illegible] and constructed on the same model.

RAILROAD CARS ARRIVED.—The Orient arrived at [illegible] Saturday evening in tow of the [illegible] Thompson. She brings to the Northern Pacific Railroad Company twenty dump cars and some railroad material. She brought no rails as was at first reported. She will be up here about next Wednesday.

SCHOOL MEETING TO-NIGHT.—The adjourned school meeting for District No. 1, will be held at the Central School House at half past 7 o'clock this evening. The important question of a school tax for the current year will be considered, and the tax payers had better, therefore, turn out.

FAREWELL.—At the evening service at Trinity Church, yesterday, Rev. W. B. [illegible] who has been pastor of that congregation for several years preached his farewell sermon. We understand that he will in a short time leave us and go east, to what destination we are not informed.

COURT IN YAMHILL.—Judge Boise will open the regular term of the Circuit Court at Lafayette to-day. A number of attorneys from this city will go up this morning, among whom are Messrs. Dolph, Humason, Whalley, J. G. Chapman, and others.

REFURNISHED.—The County Commissioners have very properly caused the County Court room to be comfortably refurnished. Judge Hamilton has also had his office adjoining fitted up in better style than it has formerly been.

ASSESSMENT LEVIED.—At a meeting of the Masonic Building Association, Saturday evening, an assessment of twelve and a half per cent on the capital stock was levied, payable immediately at the office of the Secretary.

DOWN FROM SALEM.—Quite a number of gentlemen from Salem came down on the Saturday evening train—delegates from the Masonic lodges to receive the remains of Stephen T. Church, expected on the steamer Idaho.

CONCERT.—There was a very good attendance Saturday evening upon the concert given by Mr. J. H. Stinson, assisted by a number of amateur musicians, and we hear the performance generally well spoken of.

CRIMINAL INTIMACY.—A man named J. [illegible] was arrested on Saturday and held in the sum of $50 for his appearance this morning before [illegible] Lewis, on a charge of criminal intimacy with another man's wife.

MEETING OF THE LAMET GUARD.—The company will have a meeting at its armory at half past seven o'clock this evening for the purpose of transacting important business.

DISSOLUTION.—The firm of Protzman, Corson & Gillihan has been dissolved, Mr. Corson retiring. Protzman & Gillihan will settle the business of the old firm.

CITY.

MILITARY FUSS AND FEATHERS.—Another attempt is to be made, we hear, to induce the Commissioners for this county to give $50 per month [illegible] the benefit of a new militia company. We [illegible] this will not be done Without wishing to [illegible] other militia companies, we may say [illegible] think the county is now investing in this [illegible] quite as much money, drawn from the [illegible] payers as the said tax payers have any particular interest in handing over for that purpose [illegible] county is paying, we believe, the maximum [illegible] to two companies, neither of which is [illegible] the minimum number which would entitle [illegible] pay to the allowance Those companies were organized several years ago, when there was some sense and some possible use for them, [illegible] of them have had more than the minimum [illegible] of enrolled and active members [illegible] of the persons who are moving [illegible] to create or cultivate a military [illegible] our young men, or to educate them [illegible] so as to make them serviceable [illegible] need, why not fill up the two ex[illegible] to the maximum? If the [illegible] to make a brigade of squads, so [illegible] General, the Colonels, the Lt [illegible] and the Majors may have something to [illegible] on parade days, in time of profound [illegible] then we think the people don't want any [illegible] has shown that even two com[illegible] be kept up in this city, to the mini[illegible] multiply the squads? The move [illegible] new company is an actual damage to [illegible] old companies, as well as, in case of getting [illegible] a heavy burden upon the county [illegible] peace and save our money

DR. M. D MERRICK.—We regret that through [illegible] last Friday evening, we omitted to mention [illegible] lecture delivered by Dr. M D Merrick, at [illegible] Templars' Hall, on the subject of "Alcohol, the great moral evil of the age." We hear the [illegible] spoken of on all hands as an able and [illegible] effort in behalf of the temperance cause [illegible] is an earnest champion of the order [illegible] and from what we learn of [illegible] in other parts of the State, he is building [illegible] an enduring monument in the esteem of all good men

[illegible] AGAINST?—The Herald admits into its [illegible] communication in opposition to the entrance into the city by the West Side railroad. Its [illegible] doesn't want the road to run [illegible] street. Of course, if it cant run [illegible] street, (the street through which it [illegible] been understood it would run) it can't [illegible] the city at all Now, is the Herald ready [illegible] against the building of the road [illegible]? Is this the result for which the [illegible] was raised?

[illegible] BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION.—At the annual [illegible], yesterday, of officers of the [illegible] Benevolent Association, the following were chosen for the ensuing year [illegible] L. E. Lewis, Vice President; L [illegible] Treasurer, Charles Fishel, Recording [illegible] Lehman Blum, Financial Secretary [illegible] Joseph Bachman, Trustees, Charles Rosenthal, Phillip Wasserman and Sol Hirsch.

NEW PROPELLER.—The Sunday Bulletin says: [illegible] is partly made at the Willamette Iron Works, for a new propeller to be built this [illegible] in this city, by Mr Buchanan. The cylinders are ten by twenty-two inches in size The [illegible] is to be of the "twin" pattern. The [illegible] be one hundred feet in length, fourteen feet beam and seven feet depth of hold.

AN EXPEDITION TO THE NORTH.—The Colonist says Allen Francis (who was in this city a few days since) has chartered the schooner Experiment now lying on Puget Sound, to take a cargo of merchandise to Kenan, on Georgiana [illegible]. The Experiment is expected to get a return cargo of salmon. She will probably sail about the 18th inst.

EMIGRATING.—The down train of yesterday morning brought a large drove of young cattle [illegible] belonging to Messrs Halleck and Walker of Marion county, who are removing with [illegible] to [illegible] Oregon They come from [illegible] The cattle and teams were driven [illegible] this side and will be shipped up the Columbia this morning.

[illegible] GUARD OFFICERS.—At the annual [illegible] Friday evening, the Washington Guard [illegible] following officers for the ensuing year: [illegible] S. Mills, First Lieutenant, Al[illegible], Second Lieutenant, Horatio [illegible] Sergeant, A. Sutherland; Secretary, [illegible] Abernethy, Treasurer, Thomas Moun[illegible]

[illegible].—Since our mention of the arrival of [illegible] Lawrence from Boise City for [illegible] of locating here, we have heard of the arrival of several others from various parts of [illegible] who have come down to "prospect" this [illegible]. Some of them bring money to invest, [illegible] have come down to get employment

[illegible] SCHOOL EXHIBITION.—There will [illegible] this evening by the scholars of [illegible] M. E Sunday School, at the church, on [illegible] street, between B and C streets, under the [illegible] of Mr W. Hunter, the Superintendent, the [illegible] to be devoted to the good of [illegible], admission twenty five cents.

NEW FERRY BOAT.—Mr. Jos. Knott's new [illegible] at Westport, was towed up to this [illegible] Friday night. The boat is finished except [illegible] cabin is yet to be built after [illegible] shall be put in. She looks like a [illegible] boat, about the size of the old one, [illegible] on the same model.

[illegible] CARS ARRIVED.—The Orient arrived [illegible] yesterday evening in tow of the Dixie She brings to the Northern Pacific [illegible] twenty-dump cars and some [illegible]. She brought no rails as was [illegible] She will be up here about next [illegible]

[illegible] MEETING TO NIGHT.—The adjourned [illegible] for District No. 1, will be held at [illegible] School House at half past 7 o'clock [illegible] The important question of a school [illegible] year will be considered, and [illegible] had better, therefore, turn out

FAREWELL.—At the evening service at Trinity Church yesterday, Rev W. H. Stoy who has [illegible] pastor of that congregation for several years, [illegible] his farewell sermon We understand [illegible] will in a short time leave us and go east, [illegible] destination we are not informed

COURT IN YAMHILL.—Judge Boise will open the [illegible] term of the Circuit Court at Lafayette [illegible] A number of attorneys from this city [illegible] this morning, among whom are Messrs. [illegible] Whalley, J. G Chapman, and [illegible]

CONCERT.—There was a very good attendance [illegible] evening upon the concert given by Mr. [illegible] Stinson, assisted by a number of amateur [illegible], and we hear the performances generally well spoken of CRIMINAL INTIMACY.—A man named B Bemar was arrested on Saturday and held in the sum of [illegible] for his appearance this morning before Judge [illegible] on a charge of criminal intimacy with another man's wife.

THE COURTS

SATURDAY, April 8, 1871

U. S CIRCUIT COURT—DEADY, JUDGE—Jacob Kamm vs Benjamin Stark; in equity—motion for injunction and for an order that subpoena be served on attorney for defendant, denied.

HELD—Where a judgment is given in an action at law for the recovery of the possession of real property, and a bill in equity is filed by the defendant therein, to stay proceedings, and notice given of an application for a provisional injunction to enjoin the enforcement of the judgment, the plaintiff in the judgment is in no way prohibited or restrained from enforcing the same until injunction is actually granted and served, or he has notice of the order allowing it. A provisional injunction will not be granted to restrain the plaintiff in an action at law from enforcing a judgment, when it appears that between the filing of the bill and the time of the application for the injunction the judgment has been enforced by execution. An injunction requiring a party to do a particular thing—as to surrender the possession of certain premises—is never allowed before final hearing. In case of a bill in equity to stay proceedings at law or a cross bill, when the plaintiff in the action at law or original bill is beyond the jurisdiction of the court, the court will order the subpoena to appear to be served upon the attorney of such absent plaintiff, but when the judgment in such action at law has been enforced, the authority of the attorney to represent the absent party is at an end, and such order will not be made

Adjourned until Saturday, the 15th inst.

COUNTY COURT—HAMILTON, JUDGE—Probate Business—In the matter of the estate of Daniel Harvey, deceased, application was made to sell personal property, and an order made allowing the same. Application placed on file

In the matter of the estate of Wm. F Fisk, deceased, petition for the sale of real estate and citation to show cause why the same should not be allowed, was ordered filed, and citation to issue.

In the matter of the estate of John Phillippi, deceased, an order was made submitting Walter Moffatt in place of C Bills, absent from the State, as appraiser.

Law Business—J B & M Hirsch vs J R Hobb civil action for the recovery of money on account, judgment for the plaintiffs in the sum of $115 57, gold coin

Miller & Anker vs Captain Adamson, master of the ship Prince of Wales; for $250 damages to a team of horses for fast driving, the attorneys for the defendant made a motion to discharge from arrest, which was denied, and the case was continued until Monday next.

Court adjourned until Monday, April 10, 1871, at 9 o'clock A. M

AMUSEMENTS.

ORO FINO THEATER—The thrilling French tragedy of "La Tour de Nesle or The Chamber of Death," was produced Saturday evening to a large audience The piece was finely mounted and was acted in capital style. Mrs. Bates enacted the character of Marguerite of Burgundy, one of the most profligate, wicked and murderous queens in the history of the French—as tragically bloody as Lucretia Borgia and more deeply criminal in intrigue Mr Bates personated Captain Buridan, an adventurer and a principal character in the particular group of tragedies with which the tragedy has to do. The plottings and counter plottings between the two and the horribly tragic denouement were worked up admirably. The minor characters were quite well personated also, and the general result was a good entertainment. The tragedy will be re enacted to night for the last time

THE TERRITORIES.

A correspondent of a Puget Sound paper thinks that lands in that locality may become more fertile after a while, "when the gravel rots!"

A man, name unknown, who had just arrived in Washington Territory, was drowned a few days since in Hood's Canal by the upsetting of a boat.

On the 25th ult some soldiers attempted to desert from San Juan Island They were retaken, but in the attempt to recapture them, two were wounded and an Indian killed.

Capt Tuttle, special agent of the land office, has lately seized several booms of logs cut upon the Government lands on Puget Sound The logs in such cases are liable to forfeiture.

The Purest and Safest.

The efficacy of Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters as a specific for recruiting the enfeebled body and cheering the desponding mind has passed into a proverb In the United States this marvellous tonic, has borne down all opposition and eclipsed all rivalry, the demand for it has annually increased in a heavier and heavier ratio for years, until at last, the regular sales of this preparation exceed those of all other stomachics combined Eminent members of the medical profession and hospital surgeons without number have candidly admitted that the pharmacopoeia of the faculty contains no prescription that produces such beneficial effects in dyspepsia, general debility and nervous diseases, as Hostetter's Bitters To use the language of a venerable physician of New York, "The Bitters are the purest stimulant and the safest tonic we have." But the uses of the great vegetable antidote are much more comprehensive than such praise would imply As a preparatory antidote to epidemic disease, a genial stimulant, a promoter of constitutional vigor, an appetizer, a stomachic, and a remedy for nervous debility, no medicinal preparation has ever attained the reputation of Hostetter's Bitters It is the household tonic of the American people, and in all human probability will be for centuries to come The magnates of science recognize its merits, and that it is emphatically the medicine of the masses is proven by its vast and ever increasing sales

The Greek Athens of 1871

[Correspondence Cornell Era]

Forty years ago, at the end of the Greek Revolution Athens was a miserable Turkish hamlet of less than 300 houses. For centuries previous, we find only occasional mention of it in history and at times the thread of its history is entirely lost

Through Easter week ordinary greetings are all suspended, and instead, even upon the street, you hear Christos anesti, 'Christ is risen, and you answer "Alethos anesti,' He is risen indeed The churches are generally queer little affairs, mostly Byzantine in their architecture Pictures take the place in them of images, for one of the important questions which separated the Eastern and Western churches was, which of these two should be allowed. The council decided that one was religious and the other heretical The reading of the liturgy, chanting, elevation of the Host comprises the services. You will need to rise early to attend these services, otherwise this will be over before you are up, and you may bring away the impression that none are celebrated. How angularly look the signs upon the stores as we walk up the streets Our old studies in Greek revive at the old words applied to everyday things Here is Hermes street, Æolus street, Sophocles street—all the old gods, and poets, and philosophers, and the history of Greece are commemorated upon the corners of the st[illegible] How admirably does this rich and flexible language draw from itself new stores [illegible] new things and words, A railroad is [illegible]dromos," iron road, a post office, Ta[illegible]ydromeion, a hotel, Xenodocheion, a [illegible] store, Kapnopoleion, a fancy store, P[illegible]poleion, a book store, Bibliopoleion [illegible] ple are gradually adopting the Euro[illegible] but the full Hellenic costume is much worn It consists of the capote—a rough hair and wool cloak, red fez, embroid red jacket, white fustinellas—like a highland [illegible] embroidered leggins high toed shoes, and pistol and tobacco pouch The Hydriote [illegible] worn by the islanders generally, is very [illegible]mon—loose Turkish trowsers, and blue [illegible] the same material But every island mountain district has a distinctive cos[illegible] and an experienced eye can readily pick [illegible] locality to which each one belongs [illegible] ful temperature, clear and trans[illegible] sky above, cause the people to live [illegible] he open air Sitting on the Acro[illegible] overlooking the city, every sound [illegible] come to you The great hum of the [illegible] with a distinctness I never heard in [illegible] city Strolling one day upon the [illegible] I wished to ascertain how far the air [illegible] that wonderful clearness and elas[illegible] conveying sound which is often as[illegible] Men have challenged the power [illegible] to have addressed at one time [illegible] assembly numbering sixty thou[illegible] to be distinctly heard I stood [illegible] and spoke in a low conversation[illegible] and my friend, standing on the outer [illegible] the Pnyx, ten rods away, repeated [illegible] word I uttered A whisper he [illegible] stinctly six rods away. We reversed [illegible] and the effect was the same Pro[illegible] told me that once in the Thea[illegible] one of the largest in Greece, he [illegible] heard in the outer row of [illegible] spoke not above the ordinary [illegible] had a national existence of [illegible] forty years but, in these, universities [illegible] at Athens and Corfu, and [illegible] mon schools in all the prin[illegible] schools of arts, and colleges [illegible] The university at Athens has 60 [illegible] private lecturers, and 1 200 stu[illegible] all faculties of philosophy, law, medicine and theology The Professors [illegible] educated either in Germany or [illegible] for scholarship are not surpassed [illegible] intellectual activity of the people is re[illegible] than 20 newspapers are in [illegible] the country is so poor as [illegible] avenues of successful labor [illegible] but 280 miles in length, [illegible] and so mountainous that [illegible] manufactures are [illegible] and there are but few mines. Still Greek [illegible] the principal carrying trade of [illegible] and the Greek merchants [illegible] Liverpool, Constantinople and [illegible] the richest and most enter[illegible] Europe

[illegible] does this people speak? [illegible] of Plato, Xenophon, Plu[illegible] Substantially, yes It [illegible] instance of national ten[illegible] which a nation has clung [illegible] its language for 2,000 years During this time Greece was subject successively to the [illegible] Franks, Venetians and [illegible] their name, religion and language have [illegible] preserved till now The un[illegible] Mainotes, the descendants of the [illegible] Spartans, have never been subdued [illegible] in their mountain homes from [illegible] they retained the purity of their language And to this day, the Slavonic [illegible] elements of the population [illegible] their own language separate from the Greek A language so rich as the Greek [illegible] forms, and capable of the most [illegible] shades of expression was peculiarly [illegible] to deterioration Such change is [illegible] the loss of inflectional endings, and [illegible] influx of forms from other dialects than [illegible] The modern Greek is essentially [illegible] Doric

A Newsboy's Joke on Dana.—Mr Dana [illegible] fine looking man, whose face, un[illegible]nately, sometimes takes on an expression very akin to sadness A little bootblack who does business in the neighborhood [illegible] office, has conceived a great antipathy [illegible] gentleman in question, and has [illegible] him considerably on different occa[illegible] somewhere about six o'clock C A D[illegible] walked out of the office and started down [illegible] street, for Wall street ferry The [illegible] was ripe for a frolic, and so followed on his heels Half way down Wall [illegible] met a policeman, and beckoning to [illegible] mysteriously, indicated that the individual ahead intended committing suicide The [illegible] of the law looked into Mr Dana's pensive countenance—looked back again into his informant's honest visage and concluded the information was to be relied upon Bootblacks have unheard ways of obtaining news, [illegible] know them to be pretty good [illegible] there was no time to be [illegible]—he followed closely in [illegible] victim [illegible] the ferry and they followed [illegible] boat and [illegible] surely [illegible] to the edge of a pier [illegible] jump off, as [illegible] policeman thought. Very forcibly were [illegible] placed upon Mr Dana's [illegible] shoulders, and very ill natured [illegible] policeman bawled, "None of that, my man Of course a crowd gathered round forthwith. "What does this mean?" asked Mr Dana excitedly 'Mean? Well, it means that we understand your manœuvres, and we ain't going to have no such work as this It means that you ain't going to kill yourself just yet' "Kill myself?" and Mr Dana laughed hysterically That gaping crowd would have made Job himself hysterical 'I [illegible] the slightest idea of any such a thing I am Charles A Dana' "Of course he is, yelled the tiny tormentor, starting for the gate, "just you keep hold of him tight If he ain't sick of the world the world is sick of him, and he needs a keeper any way —and before any one could capture the mischievous urchin he had disappeared

Horse thieves in Michigan are practicing a new dodge Four men are required to carry [illegible] Two of them go in advance with a horse and buggy and when an opportunity presents itself, the horse is sold, and the two hire another horse and the two proceed to the next neighborhood in search of another purchaser On the following day the other two arrive in hot haste, inquiring for the two who had left, representing them as horse thieves learn that they have sold the horse one of them claims it, and proves ownership by the other, and gets possession of the horse as having been stolen from him then they pass on to the next neighborhood to repeat the process on another victim

General Clement Thomas, who was shot by order of the Parisian revolutionary tribunal was one of the ablest and most respected revolutionists in France He fought at the barricades in 1830 and 1848 and after Louis Napoleon's overthrow in September, 1870, was appointed by the Favre-Gambetta government Commander in Chief of the National Guard of Paris During the siege he incurred the hatred of the Reds and rapidly lost his popularity

FOREIGN NOTES

Some time ago a petition requesting Louis Napoleon to take up his residence at Ajaccio, in Corsica, and promising him ample protection against the authorities, was circulated in that city, and numerously signed The Prefect, however, had the signers prosecuted, and the courts sentenced the author of the petition to six months' imprisonment, and ten of the others to two weeks' confinement.

The dissensions of the Czar of Russia and his Crown Prince are the town-talk of St Petersburg The Crown Prince is said to be bold because he knows that he has a majority of the old Russian nobility on his side Some persons even predict that the old Russian party before long will attempt to depose the Emperor Alexander II. and place the Crown Prince in his stead on the throne

The organs of the Radicals in Paris do not speak in very gentle terms of the leading Imperialists Le Vengeur says 'When a Frenchman steals one hundred thousand francs and runs away with his money to England, the government will demand his extradition. The thief Rouher has run away to England with seven million francs will the government demand his extradition?' Le Cri du Peuple, in an article on the same subject, urges the French Government to demand from England, Belgium and Switzerland the extradition of the Empress, the princes and princesses of the Bonaparte dynasty and Napoleon's ex ministers, as common felons

Oregon Democracy.

[From the Washington Chronicle]

Another Democrat has just got awake The editor of the Oregon Herald says, on the occasion of Senator Kelly taking his seat 'For ten long years the Democratic party of the State of Oregon have had no elected Senator in Congress,' thus ignoring Senator Nesmith because, we presume, he was not a secessionist

The last Senator which the Herald acknowledges as a 'representative of the Democratic party of Oregon," was Mr Lane, whose farewell speech, "made the walls of the Senate chamber ring in defense of the constitutional rights of the States' We remember some of that speech it was delivered on the 2d of March, 1861 One paragraph reads as follows

> Sir, if there is, as I contend, the right of secession, then, whenever a State exercises that right, this Government has no laws in that State to execute nor has it any property in such State that can be protected by the power of this Government.

Again—the same "noble Roman," as he is called by the Oregon representative of Democracy—in the same speech said

> Let me beg the party who are soon to take charge of this Government to let the seceded States alone, and by no means attempt to collect revenue in their ports, that would result in a terrible and bloody war but, on the contrary, acknowledge the independence of the Confederate States of America, and treat with them as an ally and a friendly nation.

Such was the last Democratic Senator from Oregon Are we to understand that Senator Kelly stands where Lane did in 1861? Is this the platform of the Oregon Democracy to-day? The organ of that party says it is, but is it really true? Who will answer? We pause for a reply.

[If Senator Kelly were to answer he would, of course, reassert the platform of Lane. For in 1861 he was quite as much a secessionist as Lane and holds the same doctrines still, which he has now handicapped with the doctrine of repudiation.—Ed OREGONIAN]

Cheap Water Pipe.

"THE ASPHALTUM PRESSURE PIPE COMPANY" of San Francisco having purchased of the patentees the sole right to manufacture on this coast, are now making an article at their works at Alameda Point that will supply the general want of a cheap and durable water pipe The invention originated in France where these pipes are extensively used as well as in Germany in fact all over Europe almost entirely superseding for all ordinary purposes the use of iron It is no new thing, having been in use twenty years

Its Durability.

Being imperishable and insensible to atmospheric influences or chemical properties of the earth it never changes, and is consequently much more durable than iron, which corrodes, and in time leaks

It is a Non-Conductor,

And will not freeze except at a remarkably low temperature and even then its expansive power is greater than that of frozen water In warm weather it acts as a cooler for water passing through it

Neutrality to Acids and Alkalis.

This pipe is not affected by acids and alkalis, nor is it affected by galvanic currents—consequently is invaluable in conducting telegraph wires under ground through tunnels and under bridges

Elasticity

The elasticity of this pipe prevents its bursting from outward shocks or concussions. The interior of the pipes being glazed are as smooth as porcelain, and consequently are never clogged by adhering sediment

Lightness.

The mean weight of these pipes to iron is as one to five which not only facilitates handling, but reduces the cost of transportation

Laying the Pipe

Is a simple matter—can be laid by any laboring man of ordinary intelligence but the Company if required will always furnish a competent person, free of expense, to oversee the proper laying of the pipe Contracts taken for any required length of pipe from water or mining companies and warranted to stand according to contract

Pipe Under Pressure

Can be seen at the office of the Company We are the only parties manufacturing this pipe on the Pacific Coast under this patent. All other offered is spurious and an infringement

Cheapness.

The cost when laid including connections is about one quarter that of lead and one half that of iron

We manufacture this pipe in lengths of twelve feet and ship it everywhere by all sorts of conveyances—no special care being required We manufacture it of any size from one to twelve inches

Pressure.

We manufacture according to the pressure required from 1 to 600 pounds to the inch, and guarantee it to stand the pressure.

Prices.

1 inch	10 cents per foot	For pipe capable of resisting a pressure of 150 lbs to the square inch
2 inch	20
3 inch	30
4 inch	40
5 inch	50
6 inch	60
8 inch	$1 00
10 inch	$1 25
12 inch	$1 50

This pipe being made of a combination of paper canvas and asphaltum in lengths of twelve feet should not be confounded with moulded asphaltum pipe in lengths of four feet
